

A map of the state of Arkansas, showing its 77 counties. Each county is labeled with its name. Marion County, located in the north-central part of the state, is highlighted in red. The surrounding counties are Benton, Carroll, Boone, Baxter, Fulton, Randolph, and Clay to the north; Washington, Madison, Newton, Searcy, IZARD, Sharp, Lawrence, and Greene to the east; and Crawford, Franklin, Johnson, Pope, Van Buren, Cleburne, Independence, Jackson, Craighead, Poinsett, and Mississippi to the south and east. The map also shows the state's irregular border with the Mississippi River to the east and south.
